GOSSIP OF THE HOTELS.

W. H. Squire, a Bar Rapids jeweler, took dinner at the Morton yesterday.

I. F. Smith, one of Muskegon's lumbermen, was a guest at Sweet's yesterday.

The Hon. Mark B. Brewer is a guest of the Morton during his stay in the city.

H. Walsh, the right bower of Grand Haven democracy, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Walsh took dinner at Sweet's, and spent the remainder of the afternoon with noble-minded patriots like I. M. Weston and Andy Fyfe, plotting against the peace and prosperity of the republican party.

The Hon. Chas. S. Hampton, of Petoskey, State game warden, took dinner at the Morton yesterday.

O. W. Knox, of Hart, was in the city yesterday buying winter styles in dry goods for the benefit of Hart ladies.

W. H. White, a prominent banker of Boyne City, was among the Michigan people who enjoyed a Morton House dinner yesterday.

Mrs. F. T. Wilcox and Mrs. W. J. Shaw, wives of two of Big Rapids' prominent young business men, were in the city yesterday to shop and witness Miss Gale's Rosalind.

Wm. H. Wright of London, England, was a guest at the Morton yesterday morning. Mr. Wright is making arrangements for the coming American lecture tour of Sir Edwin Arnold, the author of "Pearls of the Faith," "The Light of Asia," "The Light of the World," and many shorter poems. Although Sir Edwin speaks but fifty nights in this country, it is possible that Grand Rapids lecture goers may have an opportunity to hear two famous poet who has done so much to bring the life and religion of India to the English race, and who may yet wear the laurel crown now worn by the honored successor of "him who uttered nothing base."

PATHEPIC INSTANCE OF DEVOTION.

A sad funeral was held yesterday morning from St. Mary's church. Typhoid fever made its appearance in the family of Mrs. Rose Hindernach last August. The family was composed of Mrs. Hindernach and four children. The whole family were stricken with the malady, and the mother and three children were taken to the U. B. A. Home for treatment, the oldest daughter, Rosalind, having so far recovered that she resumed her position with the Bissel Carpet Sweeper Company. A relapse followed and she was removed to the residence of Methias Boetz, No. 45 Broadway. She died last Saturday. The members of the family in the U. B. A. Home were recovering and were able to be up when they heard of the death of Rosalind. They were in a weakened condition and the news came to them with crushing force. The mother insisted that she would attend the funeral. A hack was procured and the family were taken to the funeral. They were so weak that they had to be assisted by kind friends in entering the church and to be supported while viewing the remains. After the funeral rites had been performed they were greatly exhausted. They were returned to the home.

Enthusiasm at Fennville.

Fennville, Mich., Oct. 26.—The republicans of this place held a rousing meeting last Saturday evening in Hall's block. Mr. Adams, chairman of the republican congressional committee, addressed the meeting, followed by Alfred Wolcott, a young and able attorney of Grand Rapids. They each handled the subject of political economy in a most able manner, aroused much enthusiasm by their masterly efforts, and scored one for republican supremacy. "Judge" Knowles chairman of the meeting, presided in a very graceful and stately manner. Who's all right? Belknap.—The new brick block of Hutchins & Hutchins furniture dealers, is nearly completed being now ready for occupancy about Nov. 15th.—Fruitshipping season is nearly over, only a few apples occasionally.

Destroying Shade Trees.

George M. Smith, the building mover, is making sorry work of a contract in the eastern part of the city. In moving a Holland school house from Logan-st. to Lake-st. he has literally cut a path for his convenience. Half the tops of handsome shade trees have been chopped down and the massive branches clog the street from side to side. The city marshal can get some pointers by visiting the scene of disaster.

Presented With a "Light."

Among the articles stolen from the Second Baptist Church the night following the meeting for the annual roll call was a valuable lamp belonging to Mrs. J. E. Bodwell, of No. 476 Gold-st. The young people contributed a sum sufficient to buy a new one and last evening they gathered at the residence of Mrs. Bodwell and after the evening had been pleasantly spent, presented it to their surprised hostess.

Special Church Notices.

Dr. Campbell Fair stated to his congregation recently that next Sunday will complete the fifth year of his rectorship. The sermon is to be appropriate to the anniversary.

It was also announced on Sunday in St. Mark's that the festival of St. Simon and Jude, occurring on October 28, would be observed in the chapel by a special service for the ushers and men at 8 a. m. and for the general public at 10:30 a. m.

Smashed Into Wedding.

Last evening as Helen, little daughter of F. A. Maynard, was untying her pony from the cart after returning from a drive, the animal was frightened by a couple of fighting curs and ran away. The cart was smashed into kindling wood but no one was hurt.

Democracy Satisfied.

Twenty persons attended the grand democratic rally held in Fallas hall, corner East and Sherman-ave., last evening. Messrs. Barry and Fyfe addressed the empty benches and amused themselves with their empty platitudes.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the present, liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.
